

Application note to use RA as a frequency dependent coloring device

First insert

Second insert

Third insert

Using RA to create a frequency dependent sound by using RA in between approximately complementary eqs. By doing this the nonlinearity of RA becomes frequency dependent.

The frequency to be modified the most is boosted on the input side. The eq is then adjusted by ear.

The normal use of RA is without the eqs, this allows the creation of new and different sounds.